Summer Park Programs

Registration has begun for Summer Recreation Programs at the Beardstown Park District. Programs are available for kids aged 15 months to 13 years and include sports like T-ball, soccer, golf, basketball, dodgeball, kickball, cheerleading and overall fitness. We have a learn to fish program, tumbling, children's theater, art, photography, science and cooking, as well as programs for the younger kids like Mommy and Me, ABC's and 123's, Terrible Two's and Terrific Three's and Games to Grow On where kids can have fun and learn in a group setting through games and crafts. You can pick up a flier at the park office or in the April 20 shopper, visit our website at beardstownparkdistrict.com, or you can find us on Facebook.

Gard School Field Day will be Tuesday, May 21st. Third and Fourth grade students will be outside from 8:30 to 11:15 in the morning. First and Second grade students will be outside in the afternoon 11:45 – 2:30. Volunteers are needed for morning, afternoon or all day. Volunteer forms were sent home. Please call the Gard Office at 323-1364 if you have questions.
